

Rep. John Boozman and Rep. Waxman have introduced legislation that would reverse an April 2003 FDA decision to classify noncorrective lenses as cosmetics, a move which weakened safety standards. Manufactured improperly or used without medical supervision, colored contact lenses can cause serious eye infections and loss of vision. Documents and Links

- Press Release
- Fact Sheet
- Endorsement: American Optometric Assoc. and American Academy of Ophthalmology
- Endorsement: American Academy of Pediatrics
- Endorsement: Contact Lens Association of Ophthalmologists
- Endorsement: Contact Lens Institute
- Endorsement: Prevent Blindness America